November 2016

Dear friends,

I always think that this time of year is a great reminder of what God said back in Noah's time...
"While the earth remains, seedtime and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night, shall not cease." I find that when the nights are closing in it is a useful time to think about how another year has come and gone and what God has done in our lives.

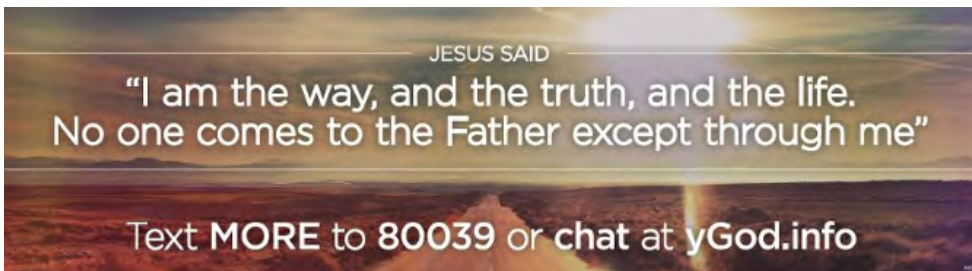

MEMO has continued with our church partnership scheme - providing free posters to churches that will join with us to pray for the posters in their local buses. We have also been proactive in choosing to place posters in areas of the country where there is a strong presence of other religions - our aim was to give those that may never come face to face with the message of Jesus, the opportunity to discover who he is and how he can help them find life in all of it's fullness.

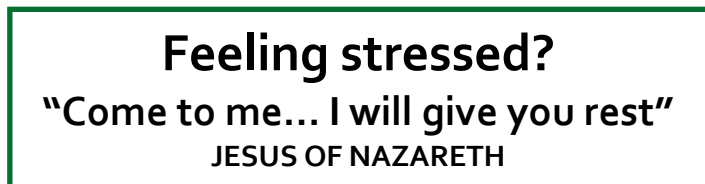

The passage I quoted from the Bible begins with these words which are our motivation and the reason we are doing this... "While the earth remains" - this is a stark reminder that the things which feel permanent beneath our feet are actually only temporary" - there will come a time when the earth will no longer remain as it is and God will say 'enough is enough - the time has come'!

For us that know Jesus what a wonderful day that will be - but for the many in this country that don't know Him it will be a terrible time. We really need to do all that we can now to help people meet Jesus

In 2017 we are planning to place 1000 posters in buses - 1,000 silent evangelists able to shout loud and clear to the travelling public! 700 of these posters will be in areas of the country where other faiths are highly prominent. Our message for these areas in 2016 was...

And in 2017 we are planning on using the words...

We know that Jesus offers us a peace and a rest that goes beyond the storms and the circumstances we find ourselves in - a peace that goes beyond our understanding! If you would like to help us present this message of hope to people of other faiths who might never normally see or hear anything of the message of Jesus then a gift of £25 would enable us to place one silent evangelist poster inside a bus for at least four weeks - we know one of our poster that's been up for four years!

We are pleased to enclose a copy of Gospel Cards Christmas catalogue. If you order from them and state "yGod?" we will receive a donation from each sale. Thank you, if you did this last year as it enabled us to put extra posters up in buses!
Please continue to pray for us
